

What is ED Critical Care?

Mount Sinai School of Medicine's Department of Emergency Medicine is proud to present our sixth annual ED Critical Care Conference

Date: January 13, 2010
Time: 8:30 am - 2:00 pm
Where: Stern Auditorium
Mount Sinai Medical Center
1468 Madison Avenue
Cost: Free to residents. For faculty who want CME-$40.
RSVP: Claribel.Velasquez@mssm.edu
212.241.0763

Schedule:

8:30 – 9:00 Registration / Breakfast / Welcome
9:00 – 9:10 Introduction
9:10 – 9:50 Critical Care in Unconventional Environments-Vladimir Kvetan
One of NY's premiere Intensivists talks about providing maximal care out of the ICU
10:00 – 10:40 Critical Care Articles the ED Doc Needs to Know-Michael Winters
Dr. Winters, one of the major innovators in ED Critical Care education, presents his top article picks of 2009
10:50 – 11:20 You're Doing it All Wrong-Scott Weingart
ED Critical Care cases in which standard practice is sub-standard
11:20 – 11:40 Break
11:40 – 12:20 Pecha Kucha Competition-Phil Andrus, Seth Manoach, Chad Meyers, & Reuben Strayer
Time is brief, stakes are high, information transfer is enormous
12:20 – 14:00 SIMWars-Haru Okuda & the Faculty
Teams from New York City Residencies will duke it out on the simulator for bragging rights and prizes